From the Headmaster

Lots of things to celebrate ...

Congratulations to the Fussners and Carbonells on the recent additions to their families – two baby girls! Liesl Rose Fussner was born on Nov. 16, and Amalia

Francesca Carbonell was born on Monday, Dec. 17. We're happy for their big sisters at Lumen Christi – Madilyn, Maria, and Anna.

Congratulations to Miss Welch and the students from grades 2 through 7 who sang in the Lumen Christi choir that participated in the choir festival at St. John the Evangelist Church last Friday. It was a beautiful performance and a great showing for our school.

And congratulations to our boys basketball team, now 4-0 after wins over Holy Spirit and St. Barnabas. The team and coaches will be on break until January.

Tonight, we'll conclude the first semester and usher in Christmas with our annual Lessons and Carols. For the first time, the program will be a joint effort of Lumen Christi and Holy Rosary Church.

First Semester Grades

First semester ends today. High school semester grades will be mailed home before New Year's Day. Elementary school grades will go home in Friday folders on Jan. 11.

Enrollment for 2019-20 School Year

In January, we'll provide information on tuition and begin the process for enrolling students and applying for financial aid for 2019-20. In the meantime, if you have any questions or concerns about enrolling your children for the coming year – or about anything else – please feel free to contact me. I'll be checking email through the break.

St. John Vianney Relic at Cathedral Jan. 4

The incorrupt heart of St. John Vianney will be available for veneration at Sts. Peter and Paul Cathedral on Friday, Jan. 4, from 10 am to 6:30 pm. See the flyer in today's folder.

Our high school students will make a brief visit to the Cathedral during the school day on Jan. 4. We do not plan to take any elementary school classes; elementary school parents who want their children to venerate the relic are encouraged to take them to the Cathedral after school that day.

From Our Development Director:

89% of our goal!

Thanks to you and many other donors our Annual Appeal is at 89% of our $50,000 goal! As we celebrate the birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ, please remember everyone who contributes to Lumen Christi by donating money, time and sending your children to our school.

LCCS Alumni Event on Friday, December 21!

Please pass the word! All Lumen Christi alumni with their family and friends are invited to a reunion on Friday, December 21. We'll meet at the 5:45 pm Mass at Holy Rosary and then head to Mr. Tequila's for dinner. No RSVP needed. Reservations for 25 at 6:30 pm are under Ellen Sanders.
