From the Headmaster

Lumen Christi's participation in the Choir Festival at St. John the Evangelist Church was a big success. Hearty thanks to Miss Welch and all the students who sang – and to parents for getting them there! I know it was quite a production to deliver everyone downtown on a Friday afternoon, but I think it was worth the effort. The Lumen Christi choir was excellent, the event was fun and exciting for the students, and everyone enjoyed the concert.

Tonight, we'll conclude the first semester and usher in Christmas with our annual Lessons and Carols. Earlier this week, I walked by a classroom where first and second graders were working on an art project and happily singing a carol they've been practicing.

It has been a blessing for me to be at Lumen Christi – I can't believe the year is half over! Thanks for all the kindness and support you've given me over these past several months, and especially in this week before Christmas. Let me extend heartfelt wishes for a Merry Christmas to all our students, teachers, and families. May God continue to bless you in the coming year.

First Semester Grades

First semester ends today. High school semester grades will be mailed home before New Year's Day. Elementary school grades will go home in the Friday folders on Jan. 12.

Enrollment for 2018-19 School Year

With the current school year half over, we're actively planning for the new school year ahead. In January, we'll provide information on tuition and begin the process for enrolling students and applying for financial aid for 2018-19.

In the meantime, if you have any questions or concerns about enrolling your children for the coming year – or about anything else – please feel free to contact me. I'll be checking email through the break.

Upcoming events

Epiphany Party: Again this year, Travis and Caroline Giedd are hosting an Epiphany Party and are inviting all adults in the Lumen Christi community. The party will be Saturday, Jan. 6, 6:00-9:00 pm at the Geidds' home, 465 Spring Mill Lane. Please plan to come if you can.

Basketball: Our boys basketball team plays at Noon on Saturday, Dec. 30, at St. Louis de Montfort. Congratulations to the team on a big win over Our Lady of Mount Carmel last Saturday.

Wishing a happy Christmas break to all our students and teachers!
