

From the Headmaster

Thanks to all the families that have returned the Parent Volunteer Commitment form. We've heard from 29 of 38 families, and volunteers have stepped forward for many of the needs listed on the form, so the PFA is beginning to organize activities and get them underway. But there's always need for more help, so if you haven't responded yet, it's not too late!

Feast of St. Michael the Archangel

Today we celebrate the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel, the patron saint of Lumen Christi Prayer Warriors for Police.

This morning after Mass the upper grades and high school prayed the Chaplet of St. Michael for police officers in Indianapolis.

Students entering the elementary school building were encouraged to say a little prayer for a police officer when they passed the St. Michael plaque outside the main office. We'd like to ingrain this practice in our school life, and we ask you to talk about it with your children.

All Lumen Christi students sent messages of prayer and support on special note cards, pictured here, which were delivered to IMPD headquarters after Mass. Thanks to the students and their teachers for beautiful art and sincere notes, and to Adam and Mollie Smith for creating and delivering these cards.

Service Program

The Prayer Warriors for Police is a school-wide service apostolate adopted last year. The faculty met recently to discuss what our full program of service should look like for all grades, kindergarten through high school.

In many cases, this means just making sure students continue good service activities they're already doing. One goal is to put in place a program that can be carried out the future, so we don't have to "reinvent the wheel" every year. I look forward to sharing with you the full service program at the State of the School meeting on Oct. 14.

Mass with Cardinal Burke

You may have heard that Lumen Christi students will have the opportunity to attend Mass celebrated by Cardinal Raymond Burke. It's true. We've been told Cardinal Burke will say the 7:30 Mass at Holy Rosary one morning during a visit to Indianapolis in late October. We're excited to welcome Cardinal Burke, and I'll have more information as plans are confirmed.

Reminder: State of the School Gathering, Oct. 14 –

The State of the School gathering hosted by the Board of Directors is coming up Saturday, Oct. 14. There will be coffee and breakfast snacks starting at 9:30. The meeting will begin at 10:00 and be finished no later than 11:30. Please plan to attend.
